FOREWORD

The Mississippi Genealogical Society takes pride in the publication of another volume of the Mississippi Cemetery and Bible Records series.

Volume I was published in 1954 and since that time, in addition to these books, the Society has published SURVEY OF MISSISSIPPI COURTHOUSES and NEWSPAPER NOTICES OF MISSISSIPPIANS (1820-1860), bringing to a total nine books of Mississippi genealogical data in seven years.

We are pleased with the nation-wide demand for these books and we acknowledge with gratitude the many letters received from people who have found them helpful in charting family lines.

Presented to Lexington Division
No. 304
Sons of Temperance
by Ladies of Lexington

"This Bible was presented to the Lexington Division No. 304 of the Sons of Temperance on the day of 18__ (Note: Day, month and year not given) by my dear Sister, Nannie A. Williams, in behalf of The Ladies of Lexington (Note: Tennessee).

After the dissolution of that Division it was taken by my dear Brother Duke Williams, who was a member of the division, for safe keeping and was found after his death in his trunk. Being endeared to me by these circumstances, I have adopted it as my family Bible.

In 1931 the American Clan Gregor Society placed in the Presbyterian Church at Hyattsville, Maryland, a tablet donated by the late William Pinckney Magruder. It reads -

Alexander Magruder, Maryland immigrant, 1652
Progenitor of the Magruder family in the U.S.A.
Born Perthshire, Scotland, 1610
Died Anchovie Hills, Calvert Co., Md., 1677.

This Alexander Magruder I (the immigrant) owned at his death 2400 acres of land on both sides of the Patuxent River in Maryland. In his will he names 5 sons and one daughter. Will filed, Land Office, Lib. 5A, Folio #261, Annapolis, Md.

The Mt. Ararat Drakes are descended from his son, Alexander Magruder II and his wife Susan Bussey Magruder to Alexander Magruder III and to James Trueman Magruder.

At the age of 14 years, James Trueman Magruder went to sea, and at 20 years of age, he was Captain and owner of his own vessel. In 1807 he came with his wife, sister and slaves from Maryland to the Natchez country, where he lived for a while near relatives in Washington, Miss. In 1809, he bought a plantation in Jefferson County, Mississippi, and named it Mt. Ararat, which is still owned by his descendants. Here his 3 children were born -

1. Susannah Priscilla Hawkins Magruder (1811-1887): married in 1827 Benjamin Michael Drake
2. Alexander Leonard Covington Magruder (1813-1887)
3. William Hezikiah Nathaniel Magruder (1815-1900)

James T. Magruder was a trustee of Jefferson College in Washington, Mississippi. He sent his sons to Rokeby Plantation for their early education where S. S. Prentiss, tutor in the Shields family, taught them.

Copy of a miniature portrait of James Trueman Magruder which was painted in London, hangs over the living room mantlepiece at Mt, Ararat Plantation in Jefferson County, Miss. - - Claribel Drake

Note: This Bible was bequeathed to Mrs. Clara Bell Wailes Drake, daughter of Edward Howard and Jane Bell Newell Wailes. All of the entries made in the Bible are in the handwriting of Edward H. Wailes, except for the addition of some death dates, and for a list of the children of James Perry and Clara Bell Wailes Drake; said list is in the handwriting of Mrs. Clara Bell W. Drake.

In 1751 Benjamin Wailes II, third generation of the Maryland Wailes family, married Sarah Howard, daughter of William Stevens Howard and Sarah Briscoe Trueman Howard. Benjamin Wailes II was a Captain in the Revolutionary War. (Ref: Maryland Archives, Vol. 21, p. 62: also Maryland Archives of May 1779).

Benjamin Wailes II and Sarah Howard Wailes had 6 children, the oldest of whom Levin Wailes, married in Prince George Co., Md., Eleanor Davies. They moved to Milledgeville, Georgia, and then in 1807 to Washington, Mississippi Territory. "Levin Wailes, a surveyor, was commissioned to establish several important boundary and standard lines acquired from different Indian tribes in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana by the U.S.A. Having performed this with great accuracy and precision, he was in 1810 appointed by President Madison Commissioner for Deciding Land Claims and Registrar of the Land Office of Southwestern Louisiana." Ref: Newspaper, Natchez Semi-Weekly Courier, June 4, 1847. From 1828 until his death in 1847, he lived with his oldest son, B.L.C. Wailes at Meade Villa, Washington, Miss. He and his wife are buried in the Wailes cemetery at Meade Villa.

Levin was a trustee of Jefferson College and took a prominent and active part in the community life in Washington, Miss. Ref: Obituary, in the newspaper, Natchez Semi-Weekly Courier, dated June 4, 1847.

The naturalist, John J. Audubon, spent some time in his home and made black and white crayon protraits of Levin and his wife and of his two eldest sons, B. L. C. Wailes and Edmund Howard Wailes. The Mt. Ararat descendants own the Audubon protrait of E. H. Wailes; also oil portraits by Thomas Healy of E. H. Wailes and his wife, Jane Bell Newell Wailes.

The Bell in Clara Bell Wailes' name was for a family kinsman, John Bell, who was a Congressman and later Senator from Tennessee. Janie Drake Cooper & Claribel Drake own a pair of beautiful pearl and amethyst ear rings which family tradition says were worn by Jane Bell Newell, when visiting her Bell relatives in Nashville, Tenn., to a ball given in honor of General Lafayette. - Claribel Drake.

Albrittain Drake, born 1755 in Nash County, N. C. (who later moved to Robeson Co., N. C. and then to Muhlenberg Co., Kentucky) was the son of James and Sophia (Valentine) Drake.[1,2,3,4] James Drake was born in Devonshire, England and was baptized May 8, 1725.[3,5,6] He was the son of Francis and Mary (Buckingham) Drake, who were married in Devonshire, where their marriage and the birth of their son James are recorded.[5,6,7] Francis Drake, son of the Rev. Bamfield (Bamphylde) Drake, was baptised on August 2, 1701, in Farway, Devonshire, where his baptism (and that of his brothers, Joseph August 11, 1694, and Bamfield, October 1704, is recorded.[6,7,8,9] The Rev. Bamfield Drake, Rector of Farway, Devonshire, was the son of Joseph and Margaret (Crimes) Drake.[9,10] Joseph Drake, son of Sir Francis Drake (1st Bart. of Buckland Monochorum) and Joan (Strode) Drake, was born in 1630 and died in October 1708.[9] Sir Francis Drake was the son of Thomas Drake and the nephew of Admiral Sir Francis Drake.[9,10]

Albrittain Drake and his father, James Drake, both served against the Brittish in the Revolutionary War.[1,2,11,12,13]

Many of the descendants of Albrittain Drake's sons - Silas, Mosley Collins, William and Benjamin Michael - are now living in Mississippi and other Southern states.[14]

Note: White Turpin sent his son, Joseph, to the University of Virginia to school. During the Christmas Holidays, Joseph visited in the home of Stevenson Archer (Medical Hall, Harford County, Maryland), the Chief Justice of Maryland Supreme Court, where he met Stevenson's daughter, Laura, with whom he fell in love. When he wrote to his father that he wished to marry instead of completing his college education, his father replied that a good wife was more important than a college education.

In the Lewis N. Coney Bible is a sheet of paper, which has been there for at least 60 years. On this paper are listed the children of Sabrine Wells by her two husbands - 1st, Dr. Able W. Harrington and 2nd, Judge Ransom Magee.

Sabrina Wells was a daughter of Nathaniel and Elizabeth Simmons Wells from Abbeville District, S. C., who migrated to Mississippi Territory in 1804. Judge Ransom Magee was a son of Rev. Willis Magee, the Baptist preacher from S. C. who came to the Mississippi Territory about 1804. Do not confuse Rev. Willis Magee with the Willis Magee of Franklin Co., Miss. I am a granddaughter of Jesse Jacob Magee (b. 1857) and his wife, Cora Willie Coney Magee.

The old Nathaniel Wells plantation was one mile south of Johnson Station, Pike Co., Mississippi. When Sabrina married Judge Ransom Magee the two plantations (Magee and Wells) were combined and called "Magee Station."

Note: This was originally the Jackson Coney homestead, adjoining that of his brother, Jeremiah Coney, where the present Woodrow School is now located - the Jeremiah property having been donated to the school.

One must go through broad pastures to reach the cemetery, which had been enclosed in an iron fence, apparently sufficiently large for 2 rows of graves. The fence is now fallen and large trees are grown up around the graves, which are all in a row. If there are others, there are no markers and no outline of a grave. - R. Chester Upton

Cemetery - Townsend
Location - Montgomery County, Mississippi, in the southern part, about one mile northeast of the Bathsaida Baptist Church, alomost in a fork of the road.

Copied and submitted by - Mrs. E. C. Fenwick
Address - Kosciusko, Attala County, Mississippi
Date copied - 1959

Note: The two graves are located beside the road. The stones have been moved down to the side of the road - the graves are just above on the hill. Mrs. Townsend's stone had been uprooted by a tree and the grave area had a bad wash leading from it into the roadside ditch. Isom Townsend's grave was clearly outlined beside Mrs. Townsend's but the stone was displaced and was near the road by the other stone. Perhaps there are other graves in the woods nearby. - Mrs. E. C. Fenwick

Note: Thomas Bradford, Sr. (b. 3/1/1760) buried in this cemetery, gave the land for the Bethany Presbyterian Church and cemetery. The church, no longer here, stood across the road from the cemetery; years later a country store occupied the church site.

Thomas Bradford, Sr. left a will, filed in Pickens County, Ala., in which he states that he gave the church site; he mentions his children by name and in many instances, gives the names of sons-in-law and daughters-in-law. He also mentions a grand daughter, Martha Jane Pearson, but does not indicate whose child she is.

He was a Revolutionary soldier from Camden, S. C. A descendant is a member of the DAR through his service in the South Carolina Militia (DAR #314,765).

There are several unmarked graves in this cemetery. - Mrs. E.C.Fenwick.
